Elliot Saldukaite

PRODUCT BUILDER · VIDEO JOURNALIST · 3D PRINTING SPECIALIST

"I'm driven by curiosity. I love spotting friction, then building the thing that fixes it. From home automation systems to drones, I've always built for the joy of understanding how things work. Technology, motorsport history, anything mechanical: if there's a mechanism to unpack, I'm in."

EXPERIENCE

Technical Content Manager & Video Journalist 2021 → Present

3Dnatives · Paris (remote) — world's #1 media for additive manufacturing, 1M+ monthly readers

- Recruited directly by the CEO after being discovered through personal social media content on 3D printing.
- Created and hosted 3Dnatives Lab — end-to-end product test format spanning article, photos and video; built the full editorial + publication calendar workflow.
- Created and hosted 3D Explained — educational YouTube series growing from 3-min hardware reviews to 15-min documentary episodes; designed all thumbnails in Photoshop and led the YouTube channel restructuring strategy.
- Co-created 3D News video format; moderated the ADDITIV Design 2023 conference; delivered a webinar for the Society of Plastics Engineers (SPE) on 3D printing for plastics industry professionals.
- Covered international trade shows (TCT Asia, Formnext, etc.) and authored independent benchmarks on printers, materials and software workflow.
- Developing Between Layers — a human-centred documentary series on the people behind deep-tech innovation; mastering short-form content (TikTok / Reels) in parallel.
